

Race & Pedagogy NATIONAL CONFERENCE

University of Puget Sound • Tacoma, Washington

September 14 –16, 2006

FEATURING

Lucius Turner Outlaw

Friday, September 15, 11:30 a.m.

University of Puget Sound Fieldhouse

A profound teacher, researcher, and author, Outlaw's books include On Race and Philosophy and Critical Social Theory in the Interests of Black Folk. He currently serves as Professor of Philosophy and African American and Diaspora Studies at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee.

TICKETS

$10 general public; free with conference registration

REGISTER TODAY!

For a complete list of presentations, exhibits, performances, and public events, contact:

www.ups.edu/rpc.xml

253.879.3483

SPONSORED BY University of Puget Sound, Comcast, The Boeing Company, Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, Pierce County Community Services, Weyerhaeuser Company Foundation, Museum of Glass, Tacoma Public Schools, Washington State History Museum, and Foresight Consultants.

Race & Pedagogy NATIONAL CONFERENCE

University of Puget Sound • Tacoma, Washington

September 14 –16, 2006

FEATURING

Beverly Daniel Tatum

Friday, September 15, 4 p.m.

University of Puget Sound Fieldhouse

Scholar, teacher, author, administrator, and race relations expert, Beverly Daniel Tatum is the ninth president of Spelman College and the author of Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? And Other Conversations About Race. Tatum is a clinical psychologist whose areas of research interest include black families in white communities, racial identity in teens, and the role of race in the classroom. For more than 20 years, Tatum has taught a course on the psychology of racism. She has also toured extensively, leading workshops on racial identity development and its impact in the classroom.

TICKETS

$10 general public; free with conference registration

REGISTER TODAY!

For a complete list of presentations, exhibits, performances, and public events, contact:

www.ups.edu/rpc.xml

253.879.3483

SPONSORED BY University of Puget Sound, Comcast, The Boeing Company, Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, Pierce County Community Services, Weyerhaeuser Company Foundation, Museum of Glass, Tacoma Public Schools, Washington State History Museum, and Foresight Consultants.

Race & Pedagogy NATIONAL CONFERENCE

University of Puget Sound • Tacoma, Washington

September 14 –16, 2006

FEATURING

Robert P. Moses

Saturday, September 16, 10:45 a.m.

University of Puget Sound Fieldhouse

Moses was a pivotal organizer for the civil rights movement as a field secretary for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), and was director of SNCC's Mississippi Project. From 1969 to 1976, he worked for the Ministry of Education in Tanzania, East Africa, where he was chairperson of the math department at the Samé school. Moses returned to the U.S. in 1976 to pursue doctoral studies in philosophy at Harvard. A MacArthur Foundation Fellow from 1982 to 1987, Moses developed the concept for the Algebra Project to improve educational access for inner city and rural poor students. Together with Algebra Project Inc. board member Danny Glover, Moses and others recently launched a national discussion calling for an amendment to the U.S. Constitution for Quality Public School Education as a civil right.

TICKETS

$10 general public; free with conference registration

REGISTER TODAY!

For a complete list of presentations, exhibits, performances, and public events, contact:

www.ups.edu/rpc.xml

253.879.3483

SPONSORED BY University of Puget Sound, Comcast, The Boeing Company, Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, Pierce County Community Services, Weyerhaeuser Company Foundation, Museum of Glass, Tacoma Public Schools, Washington State History Museum, and Foresight Consultants.